LUX PRIME KITCHEN

Magazine

NOVEMBER 2026 · ISSUE 1

Prepared for Alex

01 Poulet Sauté aux Champignons, Sauce Suprême

02 Pan-Seared Salmon with Beurre Blanc

03 Poached Pears in Red Wine

Three personal recipes · Your shopping list · Wines to match · A note from Escoffier

Composed for you by Malcolm AI, grounded in Escoffier's Le Guide Culinaire (1907)

A LETTER FROM THE CHEF

From Malcolm's kitchen

Dear Alex,

Welcome to your November issue. We are in misty November, made for slow cooking, and I have composed this month's menu with you in mind.

I have been quietly studying your kitchen — 4 searches — and I notice your hands return again and again to chicken, mushrooms and salmon. So here they are, dressed for the season.

This month: Poulet Sauté aux Champignons, Sauce Suprême, Pan-Seared Salmon with Beurre Blanc and Poached Pears in Red Wine. Your shopping list is overleaf, grouped by aisle, with a few gentle reminders of things you may be running low on.

May the radiant warmth of the Omni-Lattice guide your hands as you cook.

Cook with joy, taste as you go, and let the season lead.

Malcolm

EXECUTIVE AI CHEF, LUX PRIME KITCHEN

IN THIS ISSUE

01 · PAGE 3
Poulet Sauté aux Champignons, Sauce Suprême

02 · PAGE 4
Pan-Seared Salmon with Beurre Blanc

03 · PAGE 5
Poached Pears in Red Wine

Your shopping list 6

Wines & accompaniments 7

The Escoffier note 7

01

Poulet Sauté aux Champignons, Sauce Suprême

Golden chicken, wild mushrooms and a velvet cream sauce.

40 MIN · MEDIUM · SERVES 2 · FRENCH

Chosen because you often cook with chicken and mushrooms, it fits your usual 45-minute window.

INGREDIENTS

- 2 chicken thighs
- 200 g chestnut mushrooms
- 2 shallots
- 30 g butter
- 100 ml dry white wine
- 150 ml double cream
- tarragon
- salt
- black pepper

METHOD

1. Season the chicken generously and bring to room temperature for 15 minutes while you prepare the vegetables.
2. Heat the butter in a heavy sauté pan until foaming, then lay in the chicken skin-side down and cook undisturbed for 7–8 minutes until deep golden.
3. Turn, add the mushrooms and shallots, and cook for 4 minutes, stirring the vegetables occasionally.
4. Deglaze with the wine, scraping up the caramelised juices, then reduce by half.
5. Pour in the cream and simmer gently for 8–10 minutes until the chicken is cooked through (75°C at the thickest point).
6. Finish with tarragon and a squeeze of lemon; taste, adjust seasoning and serve at once.

CHEF'S SECRET

Rest the meat for five minutes under loose foil; the juices settle and the sauce gains body.

TO DRINK

Red Burgundy (Pinot Noir) or a mature white Rioja

Alcohol-free: Sparkling water with cucumber and mint

ALONGSIDE

Crisp roast potatoes and a bitter-leaf salad

Inspired by Escoffier, Le Guide Culinaire (1907), No. 1500: Poulet Sauté Chasseur

02

Pan-Seared Salmon with Beurre Blanc

Crisp skin, a classic Loire butter sauce and spring greens.

40 MIN · MEDIUM · SERVES 2 · FRENCH

Chosen because you often cook with salmon and lemon, it fits your usual 45-minute window.

INGREDIENTS

- 2 salmon fillets
- 1 lemon
- 60 g butter
- 1 shallot
- 2 tbsp white wine vinegar
- 100 g tenderstem broccoli
- olive oil

METHOD

1. Season the chicken generously and bring to room temperature for 15 minutes while you prepare the vegetables.
2. Heat the butter in a heavy sauté pan until foaming, then lay in the chicken skin-side down and cook undisturbed for 7–8 minutes until deep golden.
3. Turn, add the mushrooms and shallots, and cook for 4 minutes, stirring the vegetables occasionally.
4. Deglaze with the wine, scraping up the caramelised juices, then reduce by half.
5. Pour in the cream and simmer gently for 8–10 minutes until the chicken is cooked through (75°C at the thickest point).

CHEF'S SECRET

Rest the meat for five minutes under loose foil; the juices settle and the sauce gains body.

TO DRINK

White Burgundy (Chardonnay) or a chilled Loire Pinot Noir

Alcohol-free: Sparkling water with cucumber and mint

ALONGSIDE

Buttered new potatoes and a lemony green salad

03

Poached Pears in Red Wine

Spiced, ruby-glazed pears with crème fraîche.

40 MIN · MEDIUM · SERVES 2 · FRENCH

Chosen because you often cook with red wine, it fits your usual 45-minute window.

INGREDIENTS

- 2 pears
- 300 ml red wine
- 60 g caster sugar
- 1 cinnamon stick
- 1 orange
- crème fraîche

METHOD

1. Season the chicken generously and bring to room temperature for 15 minutes while you prepare the vegetables.
2. Heat the butter in a heavy sauté pan until foaming, then lay in the chicken skin-side down and cook undisturbed for 7–8 minutes until deep golden.
3. Turn, add the mushrooms and shallots, and cook for 4 minutes, stirring the vegetables occasionally.
4. Deglaze with the wine, scraping up the caramelised juices, then reduce by half.

CHEF'S SECRET

Rest the meat for five minutes under loose foil; the juices settle and the sauce gains body.

TO DRINK

Sweet Loire Chenin Blanc (Coteaux du Layon) or a late-harvest Riesling

Alcohol-free: Chilled spiced apple juice

ALONGSIDE

A spoon of crème fraîche and a small strong coffee

FOR THE MARKET

Your shopping list

Everything for all three recipes, grouped by aisle. Your regulars come first in each aisle, marked with a gold bar. Numbers show which recipe needs it.

FRUIT & VEGETABLES

- [ ] Chestnut mushrooms — 200g — 01
- [ ] Lemon — 1 — 02
- [ ] Orange — 1 — 03
- [ ] Pears — 2 — 03
- [ ] Shallots — 2 + 1 — 01 02
- [ ] Tenderstem broccoli — 100g — 02

FRESH HERBS

- [ ] Tarragon — 01

MEAT & POULTRY

- [ ] Chicken thighs — 2 — 01

FISH & SEAFOOD

- [ ] Salmon fillets — 2 — 02

DAIRY & EGGS

- [ ] Butter — 30g + 60g — 01 02
- [ ] Crème fraîche — 03
- [ ] Double cream — 150ml — 01

WINE & DRINKS

- [ ] Red wine — 300ml — 03
- [ ] Dry white wine — 100ml — 01
- [ ] White wine vinegar — 2 tbsp — 02

SPICES & SEASONINGS

- [ ] Cinnamon stick — 1 — 03

YOU MAY BE RUNNING LOW ON

Leeks — you cook with leeks often; worth a quick look.
Beef — you cook with beef often; worth a quick look.

ASSUMED IN YOUR CUPBOARD

Salt, Black pepper, Olive oil, Caster sugar.

Suggestions only — we can't see your cupboards.

TO THE TABLE

Wines & accompaniments

Poulet Sauté aux Champignons, Sauce Suprême

Wine: Red Burgundy (Pinot Noir) or a mature white Rioja

Alongside: Crisp roast potatoes and a bitter-leaf salad. Alcohol-free: Sparkling water with cucumber and mint.

Pan-Seared Salmon with Beurre Blanc

Wine: White Burgundy (Chardonnay) or a chilled Loire Pinot Noir

Alongside: Buttered new potatoes and a lemony green salad. Alcohol-free: Sparkling water with cucumber and mint.

Poached Pears in Red Wine

Wine: Sweet Loire Chenin Blanc (Coteaux du Layon) or a late-harvest Riesling

Alongside: A spoon of crème fraîche and a small strong coffee. Alcohol-free: Chilled spiced apple juice.

THE ESCOFFIER NOTE

> Season the chicken, and fry it in butter and oil. When it is cooked, set it on a dish, and add to the butter in the pan four oz. of minced mushrooms, and fry them quickly. Add two minced shallots, a little white wine and half-glaze, and finish with chopped chervil and tarragon.
>
> AUGUSTE ESCOFFIER, LE GUIDE CULINAIRE (1907), No. 1500 — POULET SAUTÉ CHASSEUR

Our Poulet Sauté aux Champignons, Sauce Suprême takes its cue from this classic, adapted for a modern home kitchen. Escoffier's rule of simplicity — "faites simple" — asks us to let a few excellent ingredients speak clearly.

Photographs are AI-generated illustrations. Nutrition is estimated. Allergen tags are guidance only — always check product labels, and adapt to your own dietary needs. Wine suggestions are styles, not endorsements; please drink responsibly (18+).

You receive this because you opted in to Lux Prime Kitchen Magazine. Manage, pause or cancel any time: https://luxprime-ai-chef.oliverluxthorley.workers.dev/account.html#magazine